SRI K. VINAYAKAM: Sir, is the Hon. Minister aware of the fact that the grant given to the Backward Class and Scheduled Caste orphans staying in the orphanage is Rs. 15 whereas the grant given to orphans belonging to the other classes is only Rs. 8, with the result it is not possible to maintain the orphanages, and an allowance for oil bath (for oil, soapnut powder, soap and other things) is disallowed by the auditor who is asked to go into the accounts even though these are permissible items? Will the Government think of increasing the grant to them as per their request?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM: All these matters are under consideration, and I may inform the hon. Member that it is not our intention that the orphanages should be run exclusively by Government grant alone but that private charities also should give aid. Anyhow the whole matter will be considered.
